

The image displays the word "PROFILE" in a large, bold, sans-serif typeface. It is repeated several times, creating a layered effect. One instance of the word is colored red, while the others are black. The text is set against a light gray background that has a fine, pebbled texture, similar to paper or cardstock. The overall composition is minimalist and typographic.

FACULTY

New Administration Sets Goals

Dr. Dovey hails from the Pittsburgh area. After going to Slippery Rock State, he went to the University of Pittsburgh and obtained his Master's Degree in educational administration. He taught for eight years. Then he was superintendent at Greensburg-Salem School District. Upon arriving at York Suburban, he was impressed with the quality of the students, the teaching staff, and the interest the community had in the school system. After spending a year here, he remains equally impressed.

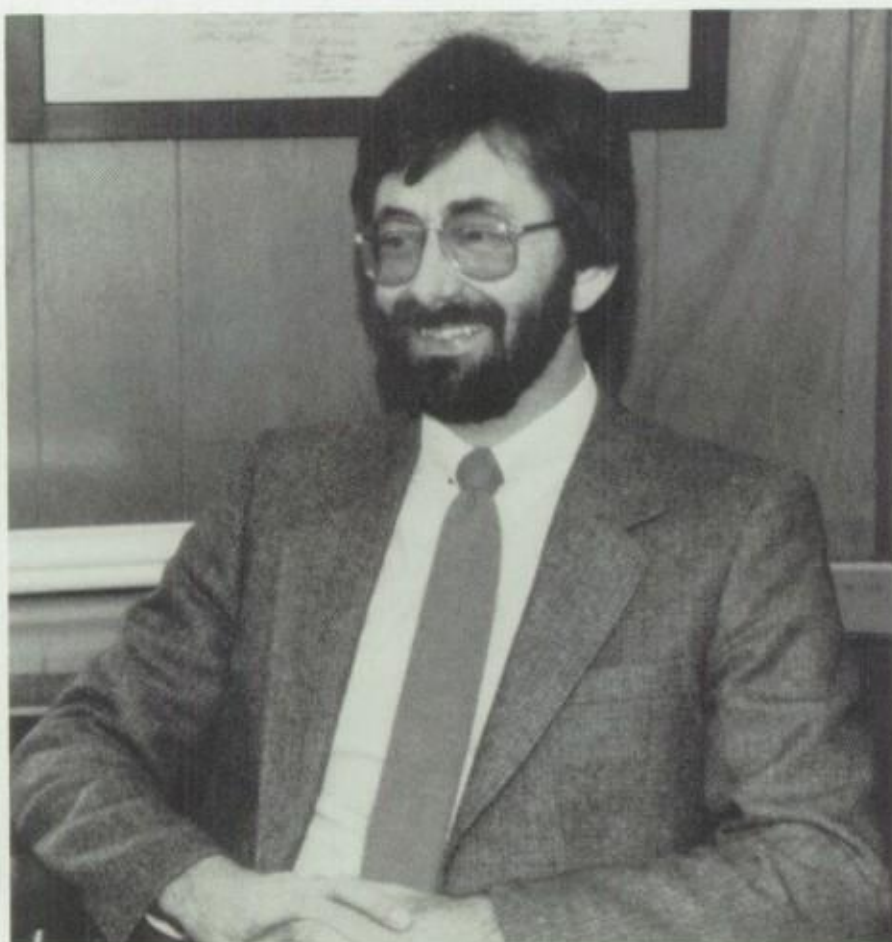

To Dr. Dovey, a good administration occurs in 3 phases: the ability to find the needs of the school district; the ability to meet the set goals; and the ability to evaluate how the job was done.

He has several goals for his administration: to coordinate the curriculum throughout the district; to review the present grading system; to get more involved in technology, especially computers; to get even more community involvement with schools, and to keep harmony, but make changes wherever necessary.

Dr. Dovey said that his long range goal is, "to be the best superintendent I can possibly be and to meet the needs of the students and the community."

On the following pages, you will find pictures of teenagers from years gone by. Don't be surprised if you recognize some of the people; the pictures are of your teachers when they were your age. Because this is York Suburban's 25th anniversary, the yearbook staff has decided to connect the past with the present by showing you photographs of your teachers when they were the students. Look and enjoy. You will find the identity of these people on another page in the book.

Southern Humor Sparks Suburban Stage

This past year has marked the return of York Suburban's Faculty Play, an event which will hopefully become tradition. The play, Murder in the Magnolias by Tim Kelley, was performed by faculty members of York Suburban School District. Among the memorable performances were Mr. Lucius as the typical county sheriff and Mr. Lajkowicz as a slightly cracked writer. The only sane one in the play, Mrs. Carbaugh had to put up with the likes of Mr. Geier, a bowling ball juggler. The play was a tremendous success, the benefits of which were given to the Ronald McDonald House in Hershey.

Trojan Baseball Led by

Last year's baseball team, led by seniors Joe Giles, Ken Scalet, and Keith Johnson established themselves as a force to be reckoned with. Scalet and Johnson, offensive standouts, along with senior Adam Zarfoss and sophomore Jason Herrold, all batted over .350 to lead a potent team batting attack. Herrold tied the school's records with 5 HR's and 28 RBI's. Joe Giles, while batting .330 proved to be more valuable on the mound. He was voted the League's Most Valuable Player and, along with Scalet and Johnson were named to the County All-Star Team: Adam Zarfoss, Jason Herrold, and John Rogus received honorable mention.

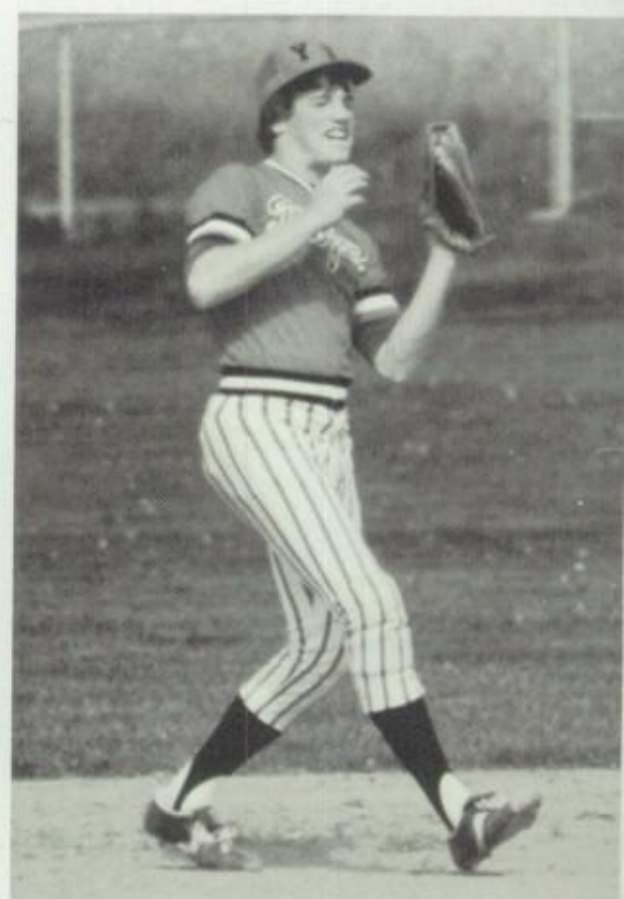

This year's team, although missing some familiar faces from last year, will demonstrate once again the talent found at York Suburban. Senior Terry Golden and juniors Jason Herrold and John Rogus are expected to lead a relatively inexperienced team. Coach Bushey will be looking for an outstanding pitcher to replace Joe Giles. Even though education comes first on Suburban's baseball team, they manage to produce some amazing players, stats, and finishes.

Relay Team Rallies

Excitement describes the 1983 boys' track team. Under the direction of Coaches Schmidt, Goyt, and Pflaum, the team finished the season with a record of 3 wins and 6 losses. Many outstanding athletes devoted much time to both practice and competition. Those members of the team compiling successful seasons included Steve Slonaker, pole vault; Joe Dashler, discus; and Phil Banks, who advanced to district competition in the 100 and 300m hurdles.

The highlight of the season, however, seemed to be the combination of Shawn Loucks, Kevin Owens, and Mark Meisenhelter in the 3200m relay. This winning team began its run of high rankings by placing first at the Sheppard Relays. In the York Suburban Relays, they also placed first. From there, they advanced to the county competition and achieved third place honors. Following county competition, the talented runners went on to place fourth in districts. On the next level, states, the team placed fifteenth.

The girls' track team also had a successful season. Seniors Sue Fitzgerald and Louise Detwiler contributed many Trojan points in a variety of running events. Laura Uffleman experienced a lot of success in the girls' hurdling events. Junior Kate Morrison placed in the county competition in both the high jump and the triple jump.

Team Effort Marks Season

Coached by first year coach Carol Thompson and Barb Adams, the 1983 Girl's Volleyball Team had an exciting season. Lead by co-captains Barb Zurenko and Karen Schoonover the varsity team finished the year with a record of four wins and ten losses. The junior varsity team completed the year with a record of nine wins and ten losses.

Starters for the varsity team included Tammy Askey, Sue Crowley, Dawn Hosterman, Elizabeth Kaarem, Jan Schindo, Emily Pearson, Karen Schoonover, Tina Skoras, and Barb Zurenko.

Awards, given out at the end of the season included: Best hands, Jenny Davis; Best thinking, Dawn Hosterman; Best passing, Missy Schister; Best spiking, Emily Pearson; Best passing, Missy Schister; Best spiking, Emily Pearson; and Nancy Dietz; Best Digger, Karen Schoonover; Most consistency, Aimee Burchell; Most Improved, Jenny Davis.

Racqueteters Rally

Trojan netters had a successful campaign last season. However, first year coach Dr. Gold feels the results "could have been better." He cited "lack of fundamentals," especially volleys, as the team's Achilles' heel. Senior Mike Erdos led the assault with a perfect record at number three singles. Other starters were Dave McEwan and Bob Lyons alternating at numbers one and two, Dave Kranich, Kevin Bowman, and Joe Danyo rotated at numbers four and five. The toughest opponent was Dallastown, eventual county champs. Trojans netman also succumbed to Central, Red Lion, and York High. Dr. Gold expects to have a strong season next year because, according to Mike Erdos, "Everyone really wanted to win." He went on to say, "Everyone had a good time. There was a really good atmosphere."

The Trojans had a good year in the county tournament as well; Mike Erdos reached the singles quarter finals. Teamed up with Bob Lyons, the pair made quarter finals in the doubles competition. Bob continued his winning ways by pairing up with Laura Glitz to capture 2nd place in District III and 4th place in the state tourney in mixed doubles.

Team Effort Contributes

The 1983 Trojans had an exciting season. The disappointing record, however, did not really reflect the quality of the team. Many games were decided by merely a few points. Two of the most exciting contests were against York Catholic and York High. The team emerged victorious from these events. The team was led by five seniors, who received a lot of help from some outstanding underclassmen. Ben Murphy was named to the All-County team. With only five players leaving, next year should be a good year for the Trojans.

Energy Dominates Team's Efforts

Although this year's record, 2 wins, 11 losses, and one tie, does not show it, the soccer team had a very energetic season. The team members fought hard and usually came close to a win. Some exceptional games were against Dover, Dallastown, and Central. The starting line-up consisted mostly of underclassmen, with the only seniors being Eric O'Brien, Dave McEwan, Kevin Bowman, and Scott Kleynen. Eric and Dave were selected to participate on the York County All-Star Team. The remainder of the line-up included juniors: Gregg Doshna, Craig Reynolds, Mark Lutz; sophomores: Dan Danyo, Steve Cater, J. L. Davis, and freshman Landy McEwan. At this point, soccer, a relatively new varsity sport at Suburban, is constantly rising in popularity.

Under the direction of first-year coach Dr. Gold, the girls' tennis team had a successful season. They only succumbed to Hanover, Southwestern, and the eventual league champion, Spring Grove. As a result, the team had a record of 7-3 and a tie for third place in the league standings. The Trojans were ably led by Laura Glitz, who only lost two games all season. This outstanding performance led to her second consecutive county and District 3 championships. However, her winning ways were halted in the quarterfinals of the state tournament. Other members of the starting five were: junior Jane McMaster, senior Kathy Pandelidis, sophomore Shelly Azar, and freshman sensation Sharlene Bhyun. The outlook for next year is bright, considering the team will only lose one valuable senior.

Runners Maintain Position

Maintaining the Suburban Cross Country team's winning tradition, this year's team finished with an overall record of 9 wins and no losses. They displayed their skill at the Hereford Invitational meet by making a double win and capturing both the varsity and J.V. first place awards. They went on to defeat their biggest rival, York Catholic, 25-31, for the YCIAA Championship. The undefeated team was lead by starters Craig Johnson, Scott Johnson, Rick Ensminger, Mark Meisenhelter, Doug Martin, Tim Ebbert, Keith Almoney, and Joe Danyo.

The 1983 season proved to be a rebuilding year for the golf team, under coach John Flinchbaugh. Even though the team was confident at the start of the year, their expectation proved to be too high. The team plays on local courses, including Briarwood, Cool Creek, Yorktowne, and Grandview. According to some of the team members, Grandview is the toughest course, due to its numerous bunkers and water hazards in strategic positions. The attitude when on the course is one of desire to win and extreme concentration, because the game of golf requires thought and mental preparation. Two of Suburban's best are Cary Walton, a junior and John Brammer, a freshman. Although there were none this year, the team is looking forward to some holes-in-one.

Trojans Come Through Under Pressure

The 1983-84 basketball team had another successful year as Coach Hasenfus' Trojans completed their 15th consecutive winning campaign. The Trojans had an overall record of 15-9, with a division record of 9-5. Junior, Mike Donahue, led scoring both on the team and finished second in the county. Other starting members were seniors Eric Wertz and Geof Abendscheon, Jason Herrold, a junior, and Brian Towns, a sophomore. Key games this season were against Red Lion, perennial rivals York Catholic, and division champions Dallastown. Despite injuries to key players, the team spirit and perserverance came through. Mike Donahue summed up the season by saying, "We had a young team, but everyone performed well under pressure."

Girls' Team Combines Talent

The 1983-1984 girls' basketball team, coached by Roger Miller and managed by Andrea Nyman, had a successful season, winning seven out of twelve games. The seasons starters were Mindy Steward, Tobi Snell, Kate Morrison, Nancy Dietz, and Lori Snyder. Mindy Steward, one of the team's most outstanding players, combined her efforts with the other starters, enabling the team to compete in districts. Suburban Swim Team Continues

Awesome is the best adjective one can use to describe our swim team's season. Continuing a tradition that has yet to be broken, the team has recorded 92 straight league wins for each the boys' and girls' teams. York Suburban has dominated county titles during the league's entire eight year history.

One of the highlights this year was the development of the underclassmen and the development of the total team depth. Coach Guyer stated, "with the underclassmen depth, we will be able to carry some York Suburban tradition in years to come."

Four outstanding swimmers on the team are Geoff Barner, Chris Dahowski, Peggy Hickman, and Kim Mader. "We work hard," Geoff Barnes said, "but most of the credit should go to our coaches. Without them, all the work would be useless."

Grapplers Grab a Win

It has finally happened. After an eight year dry spell of losses, the 1983-84 varsity wrestling team captured its first victory this year against Lebanon by a 41-21 margin. But the wrestlers didn't stop there. They continued in their winning ways as they defeated York Catholic the following week, and their enthusiasm is still growing.

Coached by Terry Geier, a veteran coach of six years, and newcomer Phil Hurlbert, the team is comprised mainly of underclassmen. This is definitely an advantage since these underclassmen will be returning next year, bringing with them their experience and dedication to the sport.

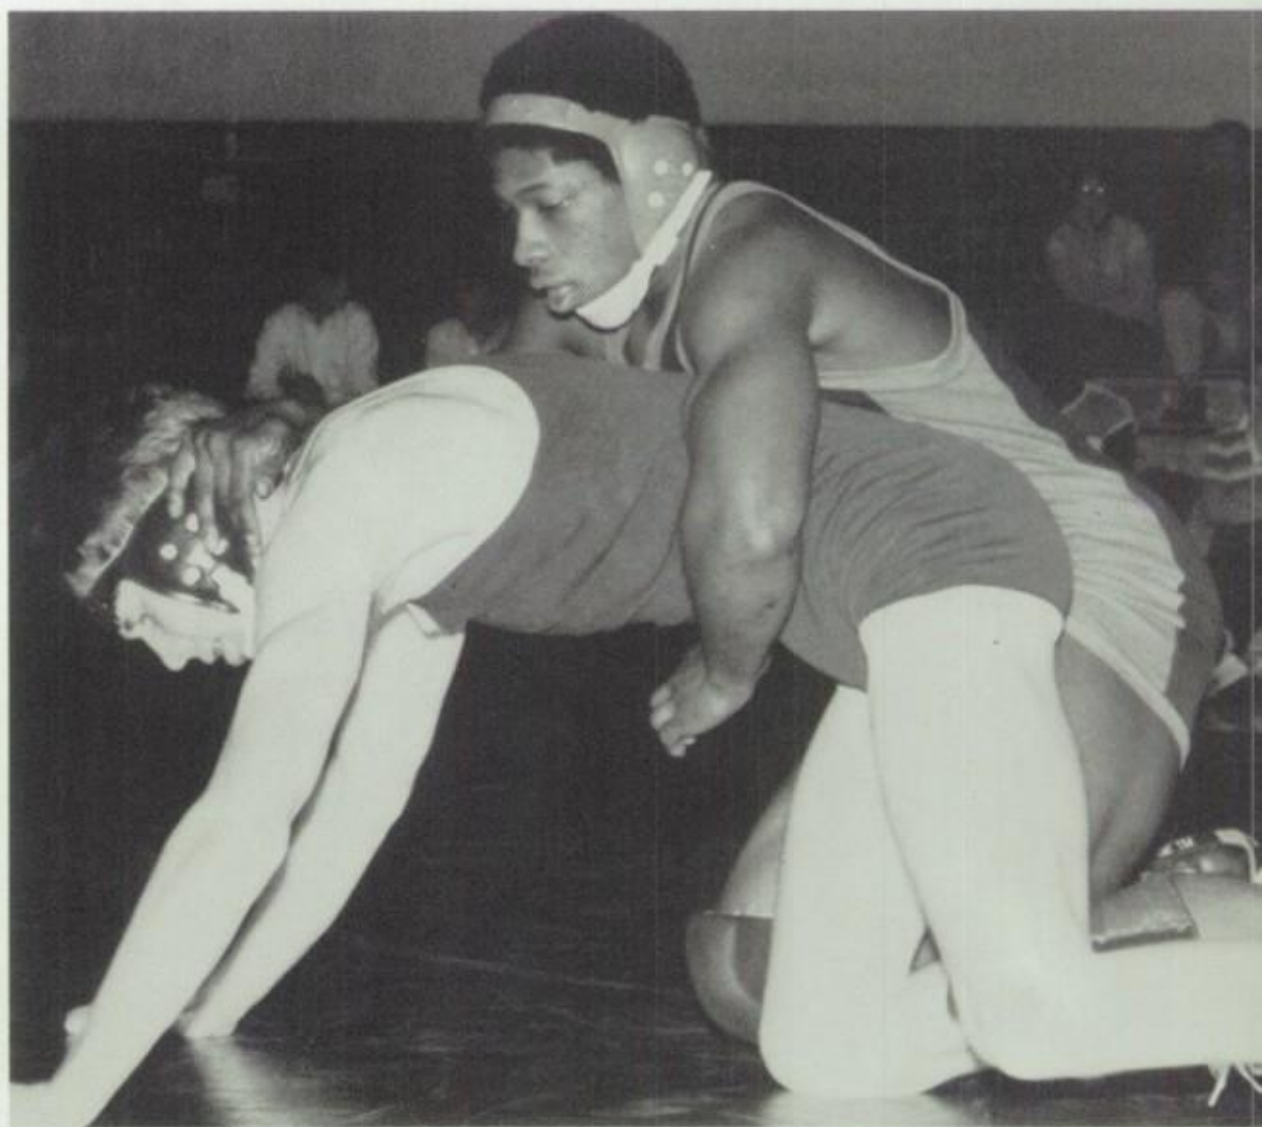

All in all, the season was a profitable one, and Coach Geier is anticipating an increased interest in the sport in coming years. Although plagued by many injuries all through the season, each wrestler put forth his best effort and made this a truly memorable wrestling season.

At Suburban Anything Goes!

The 1983 York Suburban spring musical production was the Cole Porter Broadway show, Anything Goes. Put together through the vocal direction of student Mark Mummert, orchestral direction of student Ellen Wolfman, choreographical coordination of Suburban graduate and local dance teacher Mitzi Fogal, and general direction of music teacher Mr. Lutz, the show was presented Friday, April 22 and Saturday, April 23. The plot revolved around several humorous shipboard romances in the 1930's involving Mark Mummert, John Dennes, Mike Snell, Randi Zell, Susan Prendergast, and Cheri Kousen. Supporting cast included Natalie Simon, Mike Reihart, and the singing quartet of Julia Joseph, Lisa Greenwald, Missy Stump, and Beth Weigle. Performing in the elaborate production numbers also were tap dancers, dancers, and chorus. Set design by Barry Girling provided multi-level ship decks as well as cabin settings. The show was well-received by all.

Yorktowne Provides Backdrop for Spring Affair

On May 21, 1983, the Junior/Senior Prom was held in the Yorktowne ballroom. "Only Time Will Tell," by Asia was selected as the theme. The senior class chose Karen Alwine and John Naylor, Louise Detwiler, and Mike Stotsky, Cathy Landis and Keith Johnson, and Sheri Payne and Bill Mann as the prom court. Bev Wrye and Tim Bievenour received the honor of Prom Queen and King. The evening provided many memories for everyone that attended.

Elections Help Promote

During the last weeks of April, the race for student council offices became intense. The 2 tickets formed were RSVP and CBL. RSVP was composed of Betty Rexrode, Nancy Stambaugh, and Kathy Pandelidis and they used the slogan "The 3 for '83 and more for '84." CBL included Craig Walker, Becky Delp, and Lisa Piperburg, and "When CBL talk, people listen," was their catch phrase.

On April 25, during the election assembly, the candidates presented their platforms. RSVP stated as their primary objective to involve more of the student body in creative projects such as a peer counseling program (ALPHA), showing old movies for $1, a birthday cake committee, a spring fling carnival, a talent show, and publication of student council minutes. CBL stated their chief goal as accomplishing their platform. This included a series of monthly theme dances and movies, more class competitions like Spirit Week, a mini-Olympics, and a May Day Spring Fling. They also proposed having a dance-a-thon and donuts in the morning, donating the proceeds to charity. For sports fans, they proposed having more pep rallies and buses for away games. The following day, the student body voted for Craig Walker, Becky Delp, and Kathy Pandelidis. These able leaders will guide us in the '83-'84 year.

Variety Headlines Show

The wide variety of talent presentations made this year's talent show a success. The acts ranged from a serious musical selection by Martha Ellis, Ellen Wolfman, and Rachel Stambaugh to a comical "Magic Show" with a surprise ending. Other acts included a guitar number by Brian Pearson, a dancing and singing performance by Betty Rexode, Emily Pearson, and Kathy Pandelidis, and a ballet routine. The announcers for the show were Russ Widdall and Mike Snell. Also, the new school officers Craig Walker, Becky Delp, and Kathy Pandelidis were installed.

Mike Schwartz and Don Bailey show off their bike riding skills on stage.

Karen Alwine and fellow dancers perform a toe number.

E.T. provides the surprise ending to the "Magic Show."

Betty Rexrode, Emily Pearson, and Kathy Pandelidis sing "Chirp-Chirp" as an encore from the Junior Class Play performance.

The audience was entertained by Randy Knee at the keyboard.

Brian Pearson and his band, Rosewood Jam, play a song by the Grateful Dead.

Ellen Wolfman, Martha Ellis, and Rachel Stambaugh show their talents in a piano, flute, and cello trio.

Graduation Marks End of an Era

Green grass and clear skies helped to produce a truly memorable graduation. June 8, 1983, marked York Suburban's twenty-fourth annual commencement exercises which were held on the football field. Following the invocation by Keith Johnson; senior class president, Mark Mummert and the school board president, Charles A. Stein, greeted the audience. Chris Crovatto, Martha Ellis, and Mike Erdos addressed the class, reminiscing the past four years. Next the band played "Tomorrow" from the Broadway musical "Annie." Highlighting the evening was the presentation of the diplomas which were given out by both Mr. Lehman and Dr. Dovey. Mark Hickman delivered the benediction and the class of 1983 left high school behind forever.

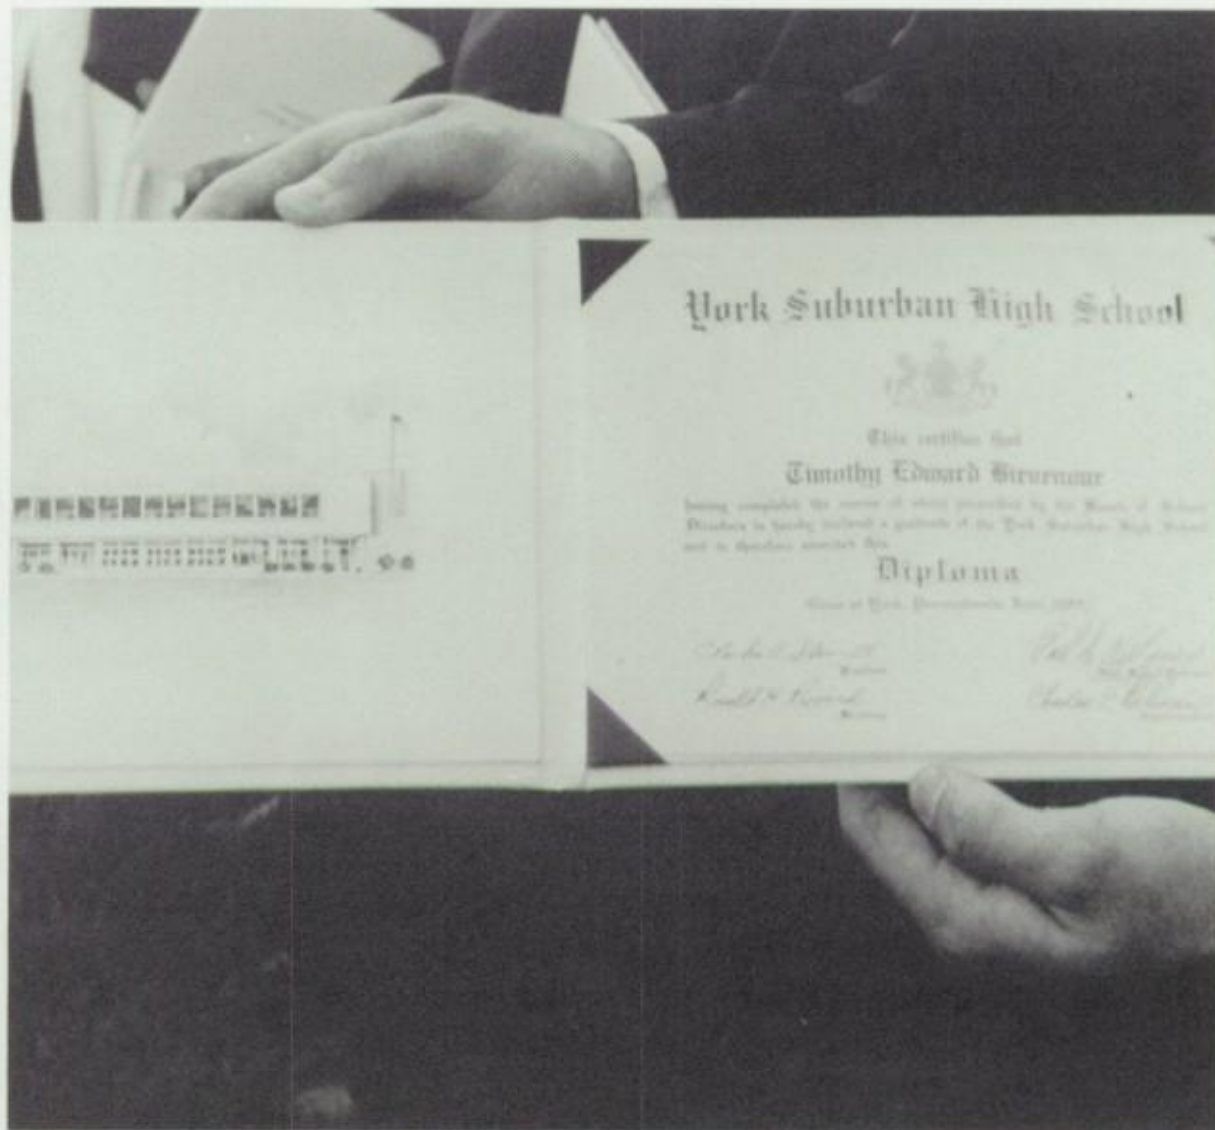

Mike Erdos remembers the past four years.

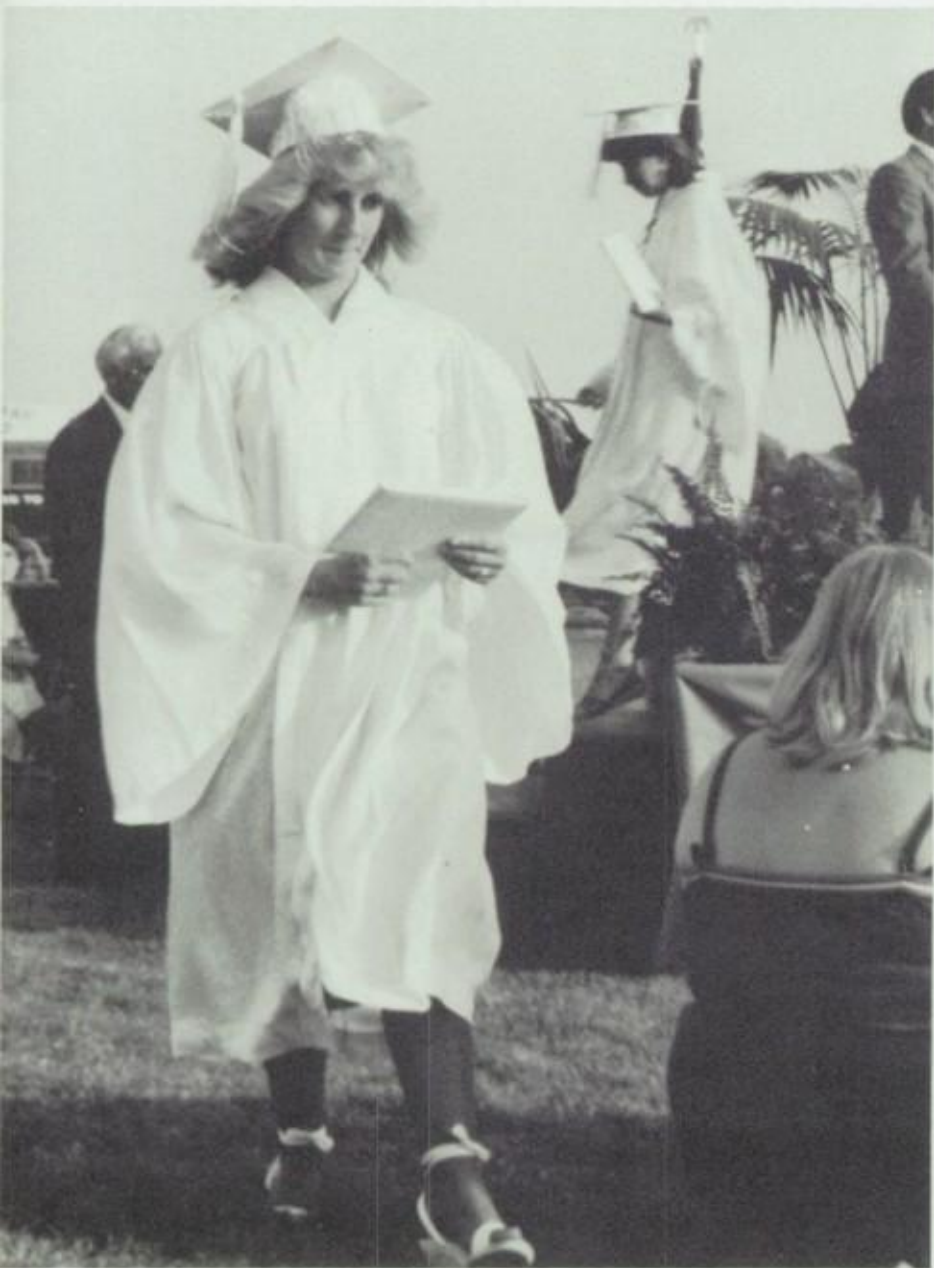

Anxious seniors await the future.

A symbol of a new beginning is displayed.

Julie Daugherty finally has diploma in hand.

Chris Crovatto bids fond farewell to his alma mater.

Crazy Family Captures Y.S. Stage

Have you ever wondered how an average American family lives? Well, you would still be in the dark if you saw this year's Drama Club play, You Can't Take It With You, because the play was by no means average. The play, focusing on the everyday lives of a very eccentric family, provided an enjoyable evening of entertainment for its audience. Congratulations to all those involved; the play was truly a success.

Who Done It?

Who done it? That's what the Senior Class Play was trying to find out. This year's seniors presented the Agatha Christie murder mystery Black Coffee December 8 and 10. Hercule Poirot, played by Dave Kranich, was called in to discuss who killed Sir Claude. The Senior Class did credit to a well-written play with their wonderful character portrayals. Mrs. Schaszberger, the director, and student director Sue Shytle were both pleased by the students efforts and performances. Oh, by the way, the secretary (Kristy Connors) did it.

Trojans Find Comfort

October 15 marked the date for the Homecoming 1983 activities. These festivities began as the Senior Class elected the Homecoming Court of Lori Askey, Becky Delp, Kris Gilbert, Kim Mader, and Kathy Pandelidis. Kim Mader was crowned Homecoming Queen during the pre-game activities. The Senior Class was victorious in the float competition with the theme of "102nd Use for a Dead Cat." Despite the loss to Dallastown, nobody's spirit was dampened as everyone enjoyed the music supplied by the band, "Fast Break," at the Homecoming dance. It was a truly memorable evening for all who attended.

84 Marks Changes

The 1984 Profile holds many memories. It is a book of joy and sorrow; it shows both victory and defeat, good times and bad. But mostly, it is a book filled with change.

The staff has put many long hours into the production of this book, meeting on a weekly basis to produce the pages of this yearbook. We have also instituted several changes in the format of the book that we hope everyone will enjoy.

First, there is the addition of color senior pictures. It is our hope that this is a worthwhile addition. Next, there is the section of faculty candid, contributed by the faculty members themselves. This section was added as a nostalgic look at years gone by and a glimpse of years to come. Finally, the remaining changes were in the general organization of the book. We feel these changes have led to the production of the best yearbook possible.

The 1984 Profile celebrates 25 years of memories and opens the door to 25 more years of dreams, hopes, and ambitions. Enjoy it.

Choir Combines Efforts for Results

Mr. Lutz is busy arranging the choir's schedule.

The three musical groups in the high school are led by Mr. Lutz. This year, the Freshman Choir was involved in its annual Christmas and spring concerts. As well as these two concerts, the Concert Choir also performed the Mass in "G" with the Spring Grove and York High Choirs. The highest level of singing talent was represented in the Y.S. Singers. This year, the group was all female, a very unusual situation. They showed their talents in touring the area during the holiday time and performing at selected churches. Another such tour may take place in the spring.

The 1984 Profile is a book commemorating 25 years of memories. The staff has put many long hours into the production of this book, and I would like to thank each and every member for his time, effort, and dedication.

I would also like to thank the faculty who so generously donated their personal photographs for the special candid section.

Next, I wish to express my thanks to the entire senior class for their unselfish donation of funds to finance the addition of color senior formals. Their many suggestions and ideas throughout the past year were greatly appreciated.

Finally, I would like to extend my greatest and most heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Carbaugh, a woman of undying patience and countless ideas for the improvement of this yearbook. I hope she realizes just how much she has helped me this year.

In closing, I'd just like to say that it's been a terrific year, and I think that all the hassles of deadlines and missing pictures balance out when a book as great as this is your end product.

Cheri
